Geneva Matlock and Volunteer, Sandi Shoden did a lot of shopping in September!

As a reminder, SCV provides more services than transportation. Here are just a few services we can provide: re-pot plants, walk friendly dogs, pull weeds, replace lightbulbs, run errands, help organize your closet, or pick up "take out" from a neighborhood restaurant. Remember to wear a face mask, physical distance, wash hands or use hand sanitizer when giving or receiving services.

Good Words for Good Deeds

Thank you for the thoughtful birthday bag which was such a nice surprise hand delivered today as I was outside my front porch evaluating my sprinkler situation . I loved the lovely artistic cards, & they will be great to send to family back east being they had to miss a visit this summer. I did not put the cupcake in the freezer to wait for my actual birthday & enjoyed the treat for lunch having already consumed my last Oreo last night. The Panera gift card is really appreciated as it will be one meal I won't have to prepare. I'm sure everyone knows the exact count at this point of the many many meals we are all cooking & creating. I take daily walks at the outlets and having the menu which was inserted will be very convenient. I look forward to getting together as soon as group activities resume.

Again it was so sweet of the village to keep tab on member events & certainly made me as a new member feel remembered.

Hugs from a distance,
Jan T.

STATE ELECTION DIRECTORS

ENSURING AND SECURING YOUR VOTE

Is your voter registration up-to-date? Do you know where your polling place is located? The November 6th midterm elections are just around the corner.

To ensure you can vote and vote with confidence, here are a few best practices. Most importantly, for reliable information on voting, go to trusted sources—contact your state or local election office. To find your state or local election office visit:

<https://www.eac.gov/voters/register-and-vote-in-your-state/>

BEFORE VOTING

- Verify Your Registration: Ensure you are registered to vote with your current address and personal information. To do this, check your state or local election office's website or call them well in advance of Election Day.
- Know Where to Vote: To verify where you vote or obtain forms to vote by mail, check your state or local election office's website or call them. Do the same thing if you are notified your voting location has changed.
- Have the Right Identification: Each state has rules about identification to vote in person or by mail. To check what identification you may need, check your state or local election office's website or call them.
- Know Your Ballot: Many state and local election officers provide a sample ballot and/or ballot pamphlet before Election Day. Familiarize yourself with it before voting. To see if your state has sample ballots and/or ballot pamphlets, check your state or local election office's website or call them.

WHILE VOTING

- If Necessary, Request a Provisional Ballot at the Polling Place: A provisional ballot is used when a voter's registration status or eligibility is unclear. If you choose to vote in person on election day and are not on the registration list, and you believe you are eligible and registered to vote, you can request a provisional ballot. It will be counted if eligibility is confirmed after the election.
- Ask for Help: If you need help or have questions while voting, ask a poll worker. If you need assistance in voting due to disability or illiteracy, you also have the right to bring someone with you to help you to cast your vote (subject to certain rules).
- Confirm Your Selections: After completing your ballot, but before casting it, confirm your vote selections are correct.

AFTER VOTING

- Check the Results: Remember that Election Day results are unofficial and it may take a few days or weeks for official results to become available. For the most accurate results, check your state or local election office's website or call them.
- Check Your Provisional and/or Mail Ballot: After elections, voters may have the option to check whether provisional ballots or mail ballots were counted. Some states also allow voters who cast a provisional ballot to provide missing information to ensure their ballot is counted. To do this, check your state or local election office's website or call them.

Learn more at www.calvoter.org

Fill it in (as best you can)

You don't have to vote on every contest. It's OK to skip some and just vote on the ones you care about.

Sign the envelope

Your signature will be compared to the one you provided when you registered. If you don't recall what it looks like, make it look like the one on your license or ID. Remember to date it.

Get it in on time

Ballots postmarked after Election Day or received more than 3 days after Election Day won't be counted. Make sure your votes count by returning your ballot in person to a voting site or ballot drop box by 8 pm on Election Day.
